EQUITY TRADER ALPHA CAPITAL GROUP

While remotely (from my home) managing $200,000 at Alpha Capital Group:

- Executed trades across various financial instruments, including Forex pairs, commodities, and indices, using the firm's proprietary capital.
- Conducted technical and fundamental analysis to identify high-probability market opportunities and develop data-driven trading strategies.
- Managed risk parameters strictly, ensuring all trades adhered to the firm's daily loss limits and maximum drawdown rules.
- Utilized advanced trading platforms (such as MT5 and cTrader) and analytical tools like TradingView to monitor market volatility and price action.
- Evaluated and refined trading performance through a detailed trading journal to maintain consistent profitability and meet performance targets.
- Collaborated with risk analysts to optimize position sizing and ensure alignment with the firm's capital allocation scaling programs.
